

Depositing funds in a FLEX account automatically renders you subject to the following terms and conditions:

Any insufficient or denied funds designated for deposit (ex: financial aid that does not materialize, a denied card transaction) will result in the suspension of your FLEX account, a financial hold on your student account (Banner), and the possible cancellation of your classes. Financial holds will not allow students to register, graduate, or receive official VSU documents (transcripts, etc.). Students will also be responsible for repayment to VSU for any goods or services received.
